

For anyone considering volunteering opportunities my advice would be to just give it a go. There are so many different areas and skills to develop, and volunteering gives a chance to not only meet but aid people from different backgrounds. Now that I have started I have realised just how important volunteering is to me, and now I cannot think about not taking part in something to help out."

Volunteer 2017

WHY NSDT OFFER VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

- We are a positive and meaningful organisation to volunteer for
- To help provide activities and services to the community
- Helps raise awareness about NSDT
- Builds relationships within the community and partner organisations
- Encourage diversity

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF VOLUNTEERING?

- Make a difference to people and communities
- Get involved in developing services and activities
- Meet new people and make friends
- Help others
- Various Volunteering roles available

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF VOLUNTEERING?

- 'Various roles available'
- Support people in their chosen career path
- Developing new skills
- Enhancing existing skills
- Language development
- Improving well being

INTERESTED?

Complete the online form-
www.nsdtd.org.uk/get-involved/volunteering/register-your-interest/

Or come into the centre for a registration form

Arrange to meet the Voluntary and Community Engagement Co-Ordinator

YOU WILL TAKE PART IN A PROGRAMME

Discuss the role you are interested in

Undergo training

We will support your needs and work within your timeframe recognising your volunteering

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

If Successful you will be asked to provide references

Depending on the role you may be required to have Disclosure and Barring Service check

You will be provided with out of pocket expenses and refreshments

AND FINALLY

we want you to enjoy your volunteering experience and have fun along the way